

Training Course Specification

Course title	Energy and Utility Skills Safety, Health and Environmental Awareness (SHEA Power)
Version No	1
Course duration	1 Day
Maximum delegate Nos	12
Who should attend	All personnel requiring an awareness of health, safety and the environment within the power industry
Pre - requisites	N/A
Outcomes	On successful completion of the course trainees will have demonstrated an understanding of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Power generation, transmission and distribution Legislative requirements including the power industry Work and its impact on the environment Importance of hazard identification and risk assessment Common workplace hazards Occupational health hazards Power industry hazards including high voltage electricity, impressed voltages How to respond to emergencies
Course content	The course consists of the following 8 modules: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Power Generation and Distribution Understanding our workplace responsibilities Understanding the effects of our work on the environment Identifying and controlling risks Common hazards in the work place Occupational health hazards Power industry hazards Responding to emergencies
Assessments	Eight multi choice assessments (one per module) Registration with Energy and Utility Skills on successful completion